DEFENDANT'S OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL EMPLOYMENT, WAGE AND OTHER RECORDS

Defendant Neighborhood House Charter School ("NHCS" or the "School") submits this memorandum in Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Employment, Wage, and Other Records from Defendant (docket no. 63). Like the numerous other motions Plaintiff Janice Stevenson ("Plaintiff" or "Stevenson") has filed in this matter, her Motion to Compel is meritless and advanced in bad faith. Plaintiff seeks an Order directing NHCS to produce a personnel file and records of hours she worked in performing services for the School, documents she contends NHCS was required to keep for each of its employees. No such documents exist because Stevenson provided services to NHCS through her own Company, TuckNT, and all parties to that relationship treated Stevenson as an independent contractor, and not an employee of the School. The depths of Stevenson's bad faith are illustrated by the fact that her own deposition testimony in this matter establishes that she knows the documents she seeks in her Motion to Compel never existed. Stevenson's company, TuckNT, was charged with the maintenance of such records for the School, and she never created any such documents pertaining to herself because she understood that she was not an employee of NHCS. Stevenson's latest Motion to Compel is yet another act of dilatory gamesmanship, and the Court should deny her motion and sanction her harshly for her frivolous filing.

BACKGROUND

In conjunction with Plaintiff's fourth set of document requests, Stevenson sent a cryptic e-mail message to NHCS's counsel in which she appeared to take the untenable position that the School was required by law to maintain certain documents pertaining to her. She stated, "... the School, my previous employer, has a statutory duty to maintain time records and employee records." See November 8, 2006 e-mail correspondence, attached hereto as Exhibit A, p. 2-3. In response, NHCS's counsel explained the flaw in Stevenson's reasoning to her, noting that the School had at all times treated the services that she provided to NHCS through her own company as those of an independent contractor, and not an employee. Exhibit A, p. 1. NHCS's counsel further explained that the statutes on which her request was based do not apply to independent contractors. Id.

Stevenson did not respond in substance to NHCS's communication regarding the documents she had requested. Instead, she sent a message stating that she did not understand NHCS's counsel's message. See November 9, 2006, e-mail correspondence, attached hereto as Exhibit B, p. 1. In response, NHCS's counsel offered to discuss further any point that Stevenson claimed not to understand. Id. Stevenson did not engage in any further communications with NHCS's counsel on this subject. Three months after her last communication with NHCS's counsel about her request for employment-related records, Stevenson filed her Motion to Compel.

¹ NHCS apprised Stevenson in writing that her numerous discovery requests were in excess of the limitations imposed by Local Rule 26.1(c). See Exhibit A, p. 1. Stevenson refused to withdraw her excessive requests. Notwithstanding Stevenson's refusal to comply with the applicable Local Rule, NHCS provided complete written responses to each of her sets of document requests.

Stevenson now seeks a Court Order requiring the School to compel the production of the same documents that NHCS's counsel has explained to her do not exist. In her Motion to Compel, she contends that NHCS has failed or refused to produce "statutorily required documents." See Motion to Compel, ¶ 2. She apparently contends that NHCS has withheld from its productions in this matter a personnel file and records of hours that Stevenson worked in providing services to the School.

ARGUMENT

Stevenson's Motion to Compel is defective in at least two respects. First, the documents she seeks do not exist and never existed because her requests are based on the false premise that she was an employee of the School. Second, Stevenson has disregarded the requirements of the Local Rules and this Court's Orders by filing a frivolous motion to compel without consulting in good faith with NHCS's counsel regarding the documents she seeks.

I. The Employment and Wage Records That Plaintiff Seeks Do Not Exist Because She Was Not an Employee of the School

NHCS did not maintain a personnel file or the other "statutorily required documents" that Stevenson seeks because the statutes she cites in her Motion to Compel do not apply to independent contractors. Stevenson apparently argues that NHCS was required to maintain a personnel file on her pursuant to the Massachusetts Personnel Record Statute, Mass. Gen. Laws ch. 149, § 52C, and that the School was required to maintain documentation of the hours that she worked pursuant to the records keeping provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 211(c). By their express terms, each of these statutes are applicable only to "employees" and not to independent contractors. By insisting that NHCS must be in possession of records that employers are mandated to maintain regarding their employees, Stevenson has begged the ultimate question in this case: whether she was an employee or an independent contractor.

Stevenson's stubborn contention that NHCS must have a personnel file on her and records of the hours she worked is also made in bad faith because Stevenson knows that those documents, in fact, never existed. Even before NHCS's counsel described the flaw in Stevenson's reasoning to her, Stevenson knew that the documents that are the subject of her Motion to Compel were never created. At her deposition in this matter, Stevenson testified that as part of the human resources administrative services that her company provided to NHCS, she assumed responsibility for compiling personnel files for the School's employees. See excerpted transcript of deposition of Janice Stevenson, attached hereto as Exhibit C, 690:10-15. Stevenson further testified that she did not create a personnel file for herself because she understood that she was an independent contractor, and not an employee of NHCS. Id., 691:18 – 692:8. Similarly, Stevenson knows that NHCS has no records of the hours she worked in providing services for the School. She testified that, though she was responsible for collecting and analyzing time sheets for the School's employees, she never submitted any document to the School containing a record of the hours she worked or claimed to have worked. Id., 304:8-12, 329:12 – 330:1, 332:5-9, 697:16-18. Stevenson's claims that NHCS has withheld these documents described in her Motion to Compel is, therefore, entirely disingenuous.

Stevenson's Motion to Compel is Procedurally Improper and In Violation of II. the Magistrate Judge's Order

Stevenson did not consult with counsel for NHCS in a good faith effort to narrow any areas of disagreement before she filed her Motion to Compel. She raised the issue of the documents she now seeks in a cryptic e-mail message, and NHCS's counsel explained to her the reasons that her requests for those documents were misplaced. See Exhibit A. Stevenson responded only to the effect that she did not understand NHCS's counsel's communication. See Exhibit B. NHCS's counsel offered to engage in further discussion of the issue, but Stevenson did not respond. Id. Instead, she opted to file a motion to compel three months later.

Stevenson's failure to discuss with NHCS's counsel in good faith the existence of the documents she now seeks to compel is a plain violation of Local Rule 37.1. Moreover, the Magistrate Judge clearly and specifically Ordered Stevenson to confer with NHCS's counsel regarding the merits of filing any discovery-related motions before submitting such documents to the Court. See Order dated November 7, 2006, p.4 (docket no. 48) ("Should Plaintiff wish to submit further discovery motions, Plaintiff must first discuss the merits and necessity of such motions with defense counsel and attempt to come to a resolution before filing said motion"). Stevenson's disregard of the rules and express Orders of this Court provides an independent justification for the Court to deny her Motion to Compel.

REQUEST FOR SANCTIONS

Like her numerous other filings in this matter, Stevenson has advanced her most recent Motion to Compel in bad faith. Stevenson seeks an Order requiring NHCS to produce documents that she knows do not exist. Stevenson testified that she assumed responsibility for maintaining the employment-related documents she seeks, and she never created any such documents pertaining to herself because she knew she was not an employee of the School. Against this background, the frivolous nature of her motion is unmistakable. Stevenson filed her Motion to Compel for the sole purpose of imposing additional expense and distraction on NHCS and its constituents. The Court clearly warned Stevenson against such making such frivolous filings in its November 7 Order, when Magistrate Judge Alexander wrote "Should Plaintiff either file a discovery motion without first consulting with defense counsel or file a motion such that the Court deems frivolous, Plaintiff will be subjected to monetary sanctions and the possibility of terminating sanctions, dismissing her case with prejudice." November 7, 2006 Order (docket entry no. 48), p. 4-5. The Court then reinforced the seriousness of the Magistrate Judge's Order at a hearing in this matter on January 23, 2007, and provided an unmistakable warning to Stevenson that further misconduct would not be tolerated. In the face of stark admonitions from two federal judges, Stevenson has persisted with her pattern of misconduct and abuse and demonstrated that her penchant for vexatious litigation is incorrigible. If there is to be any prospect of putting an end to Stevenson's antics, the Court must now substantiate its repeated warnings to Stevenson with harsh sanctions against her.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Neighborhood House Charter School requests that this Court deny Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Employment, Wage and Other Employment Records (docket no. 63) in its entirety and enter sanctions against Plaintiff Janice Stevenson in the amount of the attorneys' fees and costs NHCS has incurred in responding to her frivolous motion.

Ms. Stevenson,

Your suggestion that you cannot appear at our Boston offices for your deposition is implausible. As an initial matter, you have twice appeared at our offices for previous sessions of your deposition, and you testified that you took public transportation to the World Trade Center T station that is directly across the street from our offices to do so. We also refer you to Local Rule 30.1, which states that any location in the City of Boston is deemed as a matter of law to be a convenient place for the taking of a deposition for any person who resides in the counties of Suffolk, Bristol, Essex. Middlesex, Norfolk, Plymouth or Worcester. Though you have improperly refused in prior sessions of your deposition to tell us where you reside, it is clear from your testimony and from the many judicial and administrative proceedings that we have known you to attend that you spend a significant amount of time in Cambridge and Boston, both of which are well within the territory described by the applicable Rule. We will not incur the expense or inconvenience of securing an alternative space within the City of Boston in which to take your deposition, and we will expect you to appear at our offices at or before 10:00 am on December 20, 2006.

Your most recent set of document requests is also wholly inappropriate. Despite your captioning it as your second set of document requests, it is in fact the fourth set of requests you have served on the School. You served three (3) separate sets of requests on NHCS by e-mail on June 22, 2006, to which we responded on July 24, 2006. We notified you both by correspondence dated June 26, 2006 and in our substantive responses to your first three sets of requests that you had exceeded the number of document requests allowed by Local Rule 26.1(C). Your continuing to serve discovery requests without leave of court is in further derogation of that Rule. We, therefore, request that you withdraw your most recent set of document requests immediately, and we reserve the right to seek a protective order and sanctions from the Court if you have not done so prior to the close of business on Wednesday, November 15.

The representations in your message below about documents to which you claim to be entitled by statute are also entirely specious. As you know, it is (and consistently has been) NHCS's position that you were never an employee of the School for purposes of state or federal wage and hour law. The record keeping provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and the provisions of Mass. Gen. Laws ch. 149, § 52C have no application to independent contractors. The gravamen of the case you have initiated against the School is a dispute regarding your status as a putative employee, rather than an independent contractor. As we have informed you many times, you cannot rely on your assumption that you may ultimately prevail on the merits of this case to impute additional statutory obligations to NHCS.

In light of the foregoing considerations, we are concerned that you have missed the central point of Magistrate Judge Alexander's Order of November 8. Your message below constitutes exactly the sort of behavior that the Court has clearly stated it will no longer tolerate. If you persist with these tactics, we will be forced to file a motion for further relief with the Court.

Mr. Miller:

The order states:

Plaintiff's deposition will continue on

December 20, 2006 at a time and place to be agreed to by the parties.

Because of my limited financial resources, we need to agree to a location that is more accessible by me or I can walk to. A possible location could be near Dudley station (Roxbury), China Town, or downtown crossing.

In addition,

Should Plaintiff wish to submit further discovery motions, Plaintiff must first discuss the merits and necessity of such motion with defense counsel and attempt to come to a resolution before filing said motion.

As you are aware, the School, my previous employer, has a statutory duty to maintain time records and employee records.

Since these records are mandatory under FLSA and essential to my claim, I am submitting further request for production of the School's documents. In addition the School received a request for document production from John Davis, my previous attorney over a year ago on or around August 2005. Please forward me my personnel records ASAP.

There are Recordkeeping Requirements Under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). The FLSA's recordkeeping Regulations are in 29 CFR Part 516.

What About Timekeeping?: Employers may use any timekeeping method they choose. For example, they may use a time clock, have a timekeeper keep track of employee's work hours, or tell their workers to write their own times on the records. Any timekeeping plan is acceptable as long as it is complete and accurate.

The following is a sample timekeeping format employers may follow but are not required to do so:

DAY

TOTAL HOURS

	Employee Name:
Sunday	5/2/93
Monday	5/3/93	8:00	12:02
		00:1	5:03	8
Tuesday	5/4/93	7:57	11:58
	•	1:00	5:00	8
Wednesday	5/5/93	8:02	12:10
		1:06	5:05	8
Thursday	5/6/93
Friday	5/7/93
Saturday	5/8/93
	Total Workweek	Hours		24

How Long Should Records Be Retained: Each employer shall preserve for at least three years payroll records, collective bargaining agreements, sales and purchase records. Records on which wage computations are based should be retained for two years, i.e., time cards and piece work tickets, wage rate tables, work and time schedules, and records of additions to or deductions from wages. These records must be open for inspection by the Division's representatives, who may ask the employer to make extensions, computations, or transcriptions. The records may be kept at the place of employment or in a central records office.

Ms. Stevenson,

There are many statements in my e-mail to you of November 8, and it is not feasible to rephrase the entire communication. In sum, we believe that you are required to appear at our offices for your deposition and that the various requests for documents in your message are improper. If there is a particular issue or phrase in my message that you are having difficulty understanding, please identify your question more precisely, and we will endeavor to explain our position further. I note that my message as you have quoted it below has one garbled sentence, and if that is the source of your confusion, it may help you to review a copy of the message in the form that I sent it to you.

I have received only 2 e-mails from you since the hearing on Monday, November 6. One of them is quoted below. The other, dated November 7, related to a scheduling conflict with your deposition on December 8, and that issue has been resolved by rescheduling your deposition for December 20. If you have attempted to send me any other messages since November 6, I have not received them.

04:23:2411	A. I took mail over. Taking the mail over.	04:25:2911	sheet or reminding him it's time sheet week or
04:23:2612	Q. You're talking about mail addressed to you?	04:25:3312	asking him about an invoice because he knew the
04:23:2913	A. Mail that's going out.	04:25:3713	other vendors. He would tell me about some issues
04:23:3014	Q. So mail that you were sending out on behalf	04:25:4214	or something. Basically, that was it.
04:23:3315	of the school?	04:25:4615	Q. Okay. So you told me it took you 20 or 30
04:23:3316	A. Yes.	04:25:5116	minutes to deal with the mail in the morning and
04:23:3317	Q. That was the last thing you did in the day?	04:25:5317	then you would start processing. What was it you
04:23:3618	A. The last thing I did in the day. If I	04:25:5518	were processing?
04:23:3819	remembered there was mail, I would go over in the	04:25:5619	A. Accounts payable was every day. So if there
04:23:4020	morning and pull it.	04:25:5920	was something I left in the dean's office that had
04:23:4221	Q. Mail that had come in to NHCS?	04:26:0121	to be signed.
04:23:4522	A. Mail that come in.	04:26:0322	O. Which dean was that? Dean Chokshi?
04:23:4523	Q. And what would you do with that?	04:26:0623	A. Chokshi. I would go over to his office and
04:23:4724	A. Take it over to the office.	04:26:1024	see had he signed them and pick up what he left on
	Page 303		Page 305
04:23:48 1	Q. And someone else would distribute it?	04:26:13 1	his desk and take it back to my office and stuff the
04:23:49 2	A. No. I had to.	04:26:27 2	checks to be mailed and process any more invoices.
04:23:50 3	Q. So you distributed all of the mail that came	04:26:31 3	Q. Okay. When you processed an invoice, how
04:23:55 4	into the school?	04:26:34 4	did you go about that?
04:23:55 5	A. No. Just for business and Dean Chokshi.	04:26:35 5	A. First it came back from the person who
04:23:58 6	Q. Just the administration stuff?	04:26:39 6	received it and their base with a cionature and
04:23:59 7	A. Yes.		received it and their boss with a signature, and
I		04:26:43 7	then I would set it up for payment in the accounts
04:24:00 8	Q. And how long did that typically take you?	04:26:47 8	then I would set it up for payment in the accounts payable system.
04:24:00 8 04:24:05 9	Q. And how long did that typically take you?A. 20 minutes. You'd just open it. Most of	04:26:47 8 04:26:48 9	then I would set it up for payment in the accounts payable system. Q. And how would you do that?
04:24:00 8 04:24:05 9 04:24:1810	Q. And how long did that typically take you?A. 20 minutes. You'd just open it. Most of them were bills. You'd just start processing them.	04:26:47 8 04:26:48 9 04:26:4910	then I would set it up for payment in the accounts payable system. Q. And how would you do that? A. I'd just go in and I'd pull it up and type

04:48:56 1	A. No.	04:50:461	correct?
04:48:56 2	Q. And I think the record is still going to be	04:50:462	A. Yes.
04:49:00 3	a little bit ambiguous, so I'm going to ask you one	04:50:47 3	Q. So are you telling me that on the day runner
04:49:02 4	more time so it's clear. Did you ever receive the	04:50:49 4	which you gave to DOL and never got back, for each
04:49:05 5	calendars that you submitted to the U.S. Department	04:50:52 5	day you would write a number that corresponded to
04:49:07 6	of Labor back from that agency?	04:50:56 6	the number of hours you worked in excess of eight?
04:49:09 7	A. No.	04:51:00 7	A. Yes.
04:49:09 8	Q. And what information was on those calendars	04:51:00 8	Q. And why did you stop doing that?
04:49:13 9	that helped you compile this document?	04:51:03 9	A. Because I wanted it just in case
04:49:1310	A. These hours.	04:51:2210	(Interruption)
04:49:1611	Q. So you kept a log each day of the hours that	04:51:2911	A. Just in case historical time was needed,
04:49:1912	you'd actually worked?	04:51:3412	like how many hours did it take to set up these
04:49:2013	A. Yes.	04:51:3813	systems or did administrative devote to bring in
04:49:2014	Q. And you did that on a daily basis?	04:51:4414	these systems. There was the billed hours and then
04:49:2215	A. Yes.	04:51:4815	there was the actual hours that were committed.
04:49:2316	Q. So every day when you went to NHCS you would	04:51:5016	Q. Okay. I understand what you've told me so
04:49:2717	mark that you had gotten there at 7:00?	04:51:5317	far. If that was the reason you were writing these
04:49:2918	A. No. It was my little hand thing that I	04:51:5518	numbers down, why did you only write down the number
04:49:3219	would keep with. You know how you have	04:51:5719	of hours you worked each day in excess of eight?
04:49:3620	Q. Like a day runner?	04:52:0020	Why didn't you write down the total number of hours
04:49:3821	A. Yeah.	04:52:0221	you worked each day?
04:49:3822	Q. So you had a day runner and it had a	04:52:0322	A. Because I didn't need to know if I did 13 or
04:49:4023	calendar in it. And what kind of notation would you	04:52:1923	14 or 15 hours. I needed to know the extra time I
04:49:4324	make in that calendar that would reflect the hours	04:52:2324	expended beyond the eight-hour day.
	Page 327		Page 329
04:49:45 1	you worked?	04:52:25 1	Q. Why? You're telling me that the reason you
04:49:462	A. Just the time. Basically, the total time,	04:52:27 2	tracked this is so that you could tell anybody else
04:49:51 3	because my specific description of the work I had	l .
1	because in operite description of the work i that	04:52:30 3	who was looking into the matter how long it took to
04:50:00 4	done was on the invoice.	04:52:30 3	who was looking into the matter how long it took to complete a specific project, right?
Į.		į.
04:50:00 4	done was on the invoice.	04:52:32 4	complete a specific project, right?
04:50:00 4 04:50:04 5	done was on the invoice. Q. So for each day did you write a number that	04:52:32 4 04:52:33 5	complete a specific project, right? A. That's right.
04:50:00 4 04:50:04 5 04:50:06 6	done was on the invoice. Q. So for each day did you write a number that represented the hours you worked? Is that right?	04:52:32 4 04:52:33 5 04:52:34 6	complete a specific project, right? A. That's right. Q. So why didn't you write down the amount of
04:50:00 4 04:50:04 5 04:50:06 6 04:50:07 7	done was on the invoice. Q. So for each day did you write a number that represented the hours you worked? Is that right? A. Yes, sir.	04:52:32 4 04:52:33 5 04:52:34 6 04:52:36 7	complete a specific project, right? A. That's right. Q. So why didn't you write down the amount of time it took to complete the project instead of the

04:53:17 1	A. No.	04:55:35 1	A. Yes.
04:53:17 2	Q. Okay. So I want you to explain to me, if	04:55:36 2	Q. And did you ever submit these calendars to
04:53:20 3	the purpose for which you kept this day runner was	04:55:39 3	anyone at NHCS?
04:53:23 4	to track the amount of time that you spent on each	04:55:40 4	A. No.
04:53:26 5	project why you didn't write down the amount of time	04:55:41 5	Q. During the period of time running from
04:53:29 6	you spent on each project but instead you wrote	04:55:42 6	August 2004 to July 2005, did you ever submit any
04:53:32 7	down, you're telling me, the hours you worked in	04:55:48 7	document to anybody at NHCS that reflected the
04:53:34 8	excess of eight per day?	04:55:51 8	number of hours that you claim to have worked?
04:53:38 9	A. Because those reflected the excess number of	04:55:54 9	A. No.
04:53:4110	hours I devoted to happened to set up these	04:55:5510	Q. Okay. So your testimony is that at the

04:53:5412	School. They didn't want And when I spoke to the	04:56:0012	between TuckNT and NHCS, it was represented to you
04:53:5813	dean in regard to the additional hours, this is what	04:56:0413	that the services you would be performing would be
04:54:0414	I was going to base it on, you know, because they	04:56:0714	roughly 40 hours a week?
04:54:0815	said, We're going to pay you for 40 hours, but it's	04:56:0815	A. Yes.
04:54:1116	not I can't do this in 40 hours or we would not	04:56:0916	Q. And in fact, you worked somewhat more than
04:54:1517	meet the deadline.	04:56:1117	that on a number of weeks?
04:54:1618	So I knew at some point in time I wanted	04:56:1218	A. Yes.
04:54:1919	to be compensated, and I had to keep a record to	04:56:1319	Q. And for that 15-month period you never
04:54:2220	show. Memory is one thing. I know you always hear	04:56:1720	sought compensation for the excess hours?
04:54:2721	it, Janice, but actual concise records speak for	04:56:1821	A. I did. Remember I had approached the dean?
04:54:3222	themselves.	04:56:2322	Q. You told me that you spoke to Dean Chokshi
04:54:3223	Q. So your testimony is when TuckNT began	04:56:2623	in April or May of 2005.
04:54:3924	providing services to NHCS under contract	04:56:2724	A. Yes.

04:04:4710	Q. A test that looks to the employee's duties?	04:06:5910	three people.
04:04:5011	A. Yes. That some of these people didn't meet	04:06:5911	Q. You looked at that position rather than the
04:04:5212	managers, didn't meet exempt.	04:07:0112	individuals; is that right?
04:04:5213	Q. And that you determined based on assessing	04:07:0213	A. Yeah. I looked at the duties they did.
04:04:5213	what the duties they actually performed were?	04:07:0213	Q. The duties attached to the position rather
04:04:5414	A. Yes.	04:07:0414	than any specific individual?
04:04:5716	Q. And then you made a determination that, Wait	04:07:0716	A. Yeah. Yes.
04:04:5710	a minute. These people aren't properly FLSA exempt?	04:07:0710	Q. What other positions did you look at?
04:05:0218	A. Well, from my general reading, they didn't	04:07:0918	A. The facilities manager.
04:05:0619	meet it. And I just told the dean, I don't think	04:07:0310	Q. Which was Rich; is that right?

Full-time, regular employees. Q. And because she was only going to be around for a limited period of time, you thought typically she wouldn't be eligible for benefits? A. Yeah. Q. Accounts payable. What did you do to transfer the accounts payable function from FDNH to NHCS? A. A whole lot of data input because there was nothing exportable. I says, Can't you, like, export it to Excel, all the vendor files, and we could at least download it into Excel? They couldn't even do that or they wouldn't do that. So every vendor they had had to be input by hand. Q. Okay.
